

BEYOND BRINGING DOWN MONUMENTS

Working to Address Racial Inequalities in Our Communities

St. Philip's
Parish House
1101 Route 9D
Garrison, NY

Sunday,
October 15th
2pm-4pm

We live in an America where the color of your skin predicts your likelihood of being poor, being incarcerated, being unemployed, and if you'll die young or not.

And we live in an America that is largely segregated, with people living in homogenous neighborhoods having little opportunity to know each other across race or have a discussion about what we can do to move forward together.

We hope you'll join us for a dialogue about racial inequalities in Peekskill and current work to address it.
